TEXAS A&M
AGRILIFE
EXTENSION

Hello Child Care and Head Start Directors,

You are invited to the “Attitude Determines Your Altitude” training to be held Friday, April 13, 2018 from 10:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m. at the Galveston County Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Office, 4102-B Main Street (FM 519), La Marque, Texas 77568. Sign-in begins at 9:30 a.m. and training starts promptly at 10:00 a.m. The fee is $30.00 per participant for 2.5 hours of continuing education training (clock hours).

Training Objectives:

- Train and develop staff in positive ways to have a workplace that is creative and calm.
- Gain an understanding of how a positive attitude brings about positive change.
- Learn strategies to inspire staff and parents.
- Demonstrate effective leadership qualities to handle difficult situations.

Back by popular demand I am excited to announce that Albert Wright will be at the Galveston County Extension office to provide training exclusively for directors on April 13th. With stress level in the workplace at an all time high, keeping a positive attitude in all situations is more important than ever. This training will give you the tools to lead effectively and maintain a positive attitude as well as influencing your co-workers by giving a step by step process to change everyone’s way of thinking. This will also be a great time for you as a director to enjoy networking with fellow directors in the county along with gaining techniques and leadership methods to use in your center to achieve a positive environment and inspire your staff.

As a Master Trainer Albert was named one of the top 25 trainers in the nation by the National Afterschool Association’s NAA17. Albert was also named 2017 Texas Trainer of the Year by the Texas Association for the Education of Young Children and 2016 Trainer of the Year by the Texas Early Childhood Professional Development System. He has more than 20 years in the child care industry, having worked as a teacher in inner-city schools and with at-risk populations. Albert is all about being achievement motivated and identifying important realities in the education industry. His presentations are full of energy and excitement! You will laugh and you will learn.

Certificates awarding 2.5 clock hours of credit will be given to each participant at the conclusion of the program. Participants must stay the entire 2.5 hours for complete credit to be given. Lunch and snacks will be provided.

Registration and payment must be received in the extension office by April 2, 2018. The registration form is included with this letter along with a flyer and map. Complete all the information requested on the form and return it to the address provided. No on-site registrations or refunds will be done. There is a $25.00 fee for returned checks. We have limited seating so please register as soon as possible.

I look forward to seeing you and providing a great, educational experience for you. Please call or email me if you have questions at (281) 309-5049 or jymann.davis@ag.tamu.edu.

Sincerely,

*Jymann Davis, M.S., CFCS
